RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN URBAN RURAL AND METROPOLITAN NONMETROPOLITAN DESIGNATIONS incorrectly classify as urban small towns Conceptually, the urban rural and metro which are located far from a large population nonmetropolitan designations are quite different. Urban rural are geographic designations. In contrast, the nonurbanized areas based on population size and residential definition includes as rural all territory outside of its densely populated area, regardless population densities, while the MSA concept. Thus, while all rural embodies both a physical element (a city and of population size. its built-up suburbs) and a functional dimension-areas would be included, some cities and towns (a more-or-less unified local labor market of as large as 40, 000 residents would market) (21). The Census-defined urban also be included, as well as some outer sub-population and the MSA...
