Brand New Book  Print on Demand . 39 Spiritual Mandala Coloring Designs Mandala is a Sanskrit word for circle. It has a spiritual significance, and is a famous symbol for Buddhists and Hindus, which represent Universe. The primary Mandala design depicts a square with four gates. All the gates look like the alphabet T. The design also has a circle in the middle. Mandalas are known to portray radial balance. The Sanskrit term is known to be mentioned in Rig Veda, which is a section of its work. It also takes a major part in philosophy and religion, especially for Buddhists. There are many spiritual traditions which include Mandala for focusing on attention and concentration. Mandala coloring pages are a form of art, which emphasize on this note. The mandala coloring pages are suitable for both old and young. Some of the designs are quite complicated, and they need quite a lot of skill and effort to be colored. Thus, they are not advisable for children but are for adults instead. If you want to choose Mandala prints for your children, you should look for the ones which are a little less complicated and have simpler shapes. The levels of detail in these shapes are very minute, for which advanced painters and adults would enjoy them more. You could come across areas which are difficult to be colored with crayons, thus you would need some fine tipped coloring pencils or markers fill up those gaps. Mandala is used in numerous religious traditions. The mandala coloring pages are primarily created to promote concentration in the painter's minds. While they try to fill up the small gaps between the bordered lines, they simultaneously have better...
