Excerpt from Memorial Exercises: In Honor of David B. Henderson, in Hall of Representatives in Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday, March 9, 1906 Mr. President: On the first day of March, 1906, in Linwood cemetery at the city of Dubuque, amidst the greatest profusion of flowers, arranged in the most beautiful and suggestive designs artistic skill could devise, in the presence of a great concourse of people representing different civic societies, the Grand Army of the Republic, the State, the citizens of Iowa, the rich and the poor, the children by hundreds, Col. David B. Henderson was laid to rest on a beautiful eminence overlooking quite an extent of country, a portion of his beloved city and, for some distance, the sweep of the majestic Mississippi. Thus passed forever from the vision of men on earth the human life that had its beginning beyond the sea sixty-six years before at Old Deer in Aberdeenshire in Scotland. It had been a life of mingled hardship, struggle, toil, battles, sufferings, joys, honors, victories, disappointments; but the path he traveled led to...
