This is the case with the Huxley family. With these families, if the immigrant ancestor can be found at all, he is found to have come from England, when the colonies were being settled, and so his descendants are of early English ancestry. No known public records, and no private records in the Huxley family in the United States exist to show absolutely by an unbroken line, its origin or nativity, but the tradition in the family has been that the ancestor came from England. This tradition did not, however, or at least does not now furnish the answers to the more particular queries which press urgently for answers, such as: Who was he who came? When did he come? Where did he come from out of the broad expanse of all England, and where was the place of his activities there? Was he of London or Liverpool, or of what place was he? At what place did he land and where did he locate? What was his calling, business or status there, and what did he become here? and a hundred other cognate questions seek answers about each person whose name may be suggested as an immigrant ancestor of any family whatever. Only here and there can persons be found about whom...
