Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Working parents often feel as though their roles of parent and employee are in constant conflict. But what would happen if they reframed that perspective? What if, instead of seeing these as conflicting roles, they saw them as complementing roles? In What Families Can Learn from Corporate America, Heather walks working parents through how to reframe their perspective on working parenthood and how to apply many of the techniques they use at work to build strong teams with their families. Heather Wasielewski has built a successful career in healthcare with Fortune 500(r) companies. Her journey into working parenthood has been full of learning, adventure, and fun. She truly believes she is a better mother because of what she s learned in her career, and she is a better professional because of what she s learned as a mother. This insight motivated her to start Parents with Careers, LLC in 2014. Parents with Careers is a company dedicated to empowering working parents to navigate the journey of working parenthood through the power of education, networking, and support. She believes that together, working parents can show the world the power of Parents with Careers. Together, they can empower each other, their families, and their teams. She cherishes time with her two daughters, and learns from them every day. She hopes, as they grow up, they see her as a good mother, intelligent working professional, and a role model of a working parent.
